The Reader's Household Companion

A first practice for When Babylon Rises.

READ WITH THREE COLUMNS

Column 1: the source and what it establishes. Column 2: the author's interpretation. Column 3: your household response. This keeps a practical action from depending on accepting every prediction.

THE FOUR WORKING VOLUMES

Understanding the Times; Ordering the House; Standing Together; Building Beyond Yourself. These are recovered working divisions from the publishing plan. Final editing, manufacture and release dates remain pending.

ONE HOUSEHOLD CONVERSATION

What are we relying on? What do we know? What remains uncertain? What is one affordable, useful step? Who needs to understand the plan? Choose an action that strengthens ordinary care.

A READER'S REVIEW

Write the passage or claim, a question, the source you want to check and the action you chose. Revisit it with humility. The book, show, course and community are distinct experiences; a purchase should state exactly which one is included.

PUT IT TO WORK

Your working page

Use this page privately. Write one decision you can explain, one action you can complete and a date to return to it.

The situation I want to address

The facts or resources I already have

What is still an assumption or missing information

The next useful action and its limit

Who needs to know or can appropriately help

My review date and what I will check
